The University Activities Board (UAB) typically offers a GMAT Preparatory Course in the spring semester with a PowerScore Instructor. It's a 16-hour long weekend course, typical 3-day course. The cost will depend on your status (student, staff, faculty, alumni, or community guest ranging from $200 - $350). The cost includes study material, course booklet, Official GMAT Guide, and Practice Test. The course will give you strategy lessons, practice exercises, and quality test preparation at a competitive rate.
