A. Course Description

Credits: 5

Corequisites: None

B. Course Effective Dates: 08/15/2013 - 08/18/2019

C. Outline of Major Content Areas:

See Course Description for major content areas.

D. Learning Outcomes (General)

1. Adhere to the standards of professional nursing practice in classroom and lab settings.
2. Demonstrate professional communication with student peers, faculty, and members of the health care team in a multidisciplinary practice environment.
3. Demonstrate skills in observing and reporting the health concerns of adult patients.
4. Demonstrate the skills necessary to perform fundamental nursing procedures safely.
5. Identify principles and strategies of the teaching and learning process to facilitate health promotion.
6. Utilize Modeling & Role Modeling theory as the foundation for holistic clinical decision making.
7. Utilize clinical decision-making as the basis for providing safe, holistic nursing care.
8. Utilize evidence-based information as the foundation for holistic clinical decision making.
9. Demonstrate the skills necessary to perform select nursing procedures safely.
10. Apply principles and strategies of the teaching and learning process.

E. Learning Outcomes (MN Transfer Curriculum)

This contains no goal areas.

G. Special Information

None