HSFS 350I : Human Services/Family Studies Individualized Internship

A. Course Description

Credits:

Lab Hours/ Weeks: Corequisites: None

Lecture Hours/ Week :

MnTC Goals: None

All students are expected to demonstrate the ability to apply knowledge in their chosen area of human services. An internship is one avenue available to students to do this. Currently an internship field placement is only required for the Drug and Alcohol Counseling major (16 credits) and the Violence Prevention minor (4 credits). Internships are highly recommended for students new to the field of human services. See specific program area fact sheets for details about their respective internship requirements.  Note: this is a variable credit course with credit range of 1 - 8.
